

WXV Rugby 2023

FRIDAY 20 OCTOBER - SATURDAY 4 NOVEMBER

World Rugby has launched a new three-tier annual global women's international 15s competition. Launching in October 2023, WXV will revolutionise the women's international rugby landscape, providing a competitive springboard towards an expanded 16-team Rugby World Cup in 2025.

WXV 1 will consist of six teams and be played in a cross-pool format, as a standalone tournament in one location.

Participating teams will include the top three teams from the Women's Six Nations (Europe) and the top three teams of the cross-regional tournament featuring USA, Canada, New Zealand and Australia.
